

All written objections accompanied by proof of stock ownership and submitted to Plaintiffs' counsel will be considered by the Court, even if the stockholder does not attend the settlement hearing to object in-person.

Only stockholders planning to attend the settlement hearing in-person to supplement their written objection with an oral statement under oath are required to fill out this form.

In-Person Settlement Objector Interest Form

23-0215-MTZ
ode
No
No
No*
No
No

^{*} Written objections not accompanied by proof of stock ownership will not be considered.

